

“With malice towards none...with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves, and with all nations.”

Abraham Lincoln, March 4, 1865

The Ultimate Price For Freedom.

Memorial Day is the day set aside in the United States of America for observances in memory of all those who died in the armed forces of all wars. Lives exchanged for life with liberty. Let us share a moment of silence—Monday May 27th, on this most hallow of national holidays, to honor those hero's who paid the ultimate price to protect our freedom.
